Dear Red Angus Producer:

I am excited to announce the beginning of a new Red Angus cattle auction in the Southern United States managed by Gilchrist Auction Company. Saturday, November 19, 2022 will be the inaugural Mississippi Red Angus Fall Classic Bull & Female Sale to be held at the Hinds Community College in Raymond, Mississippi and we are contacting you to be a part of this exciting event. Enclosed is an official entry form necessary to consign to this auction. Please read it carefully and fill in and sign both the front and backside if you are interested in bringing cattle to this Red Angus function.

All cattle do not need to be halter broke but it certainly will add value and convenience at sale time in being able to clean them up and fit them for sale day. Open heifers are highly encouraged to be halter broke and ready for Junior members to put them into their showstring.

We sincerely hope that as a Red Angus breeder, you would be interested in joining us as a consignor to the 2022 Mississippi Fall Classic. Once we receive your entry form, we will continue to send information regarding this auction. The sale committee contact numbers are at the bottom of this letter – feel free to call anyone of them or myself for more information.

Cattle will need to arrive and be in the barn by 12:00 noon Friday, November 18th and can arrive Thursday, November 17th for folks traveling a great distance. The Mississippi Red Angus Association will be having a pre-sale gathering on Friday evening with more details including motel headquarters to come in the near future.

Again, we invite you to join us November 18th & 19th in Raymond, Mississippi for the inaugural Red Angus event in this part of the country. Whether you are a buyer, seller or simply an onlooker, we value your attendance and participation.

Best Regards,

Kyle Gilchrist
